

Acenra AI Travel Expense Policy

1. Purpose

This policy provides guidelines for employees of Acenra AI on the acceptable use and reimbursement of travel-related expenses. It aims to ensure that travel expenses are managed in a cost-effective manner that supports business needs while maintaining compliance with company standards and regulatory requirements.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees who incur travel expenses on behalf of Acenra AI, including domestic and international travel.

3. Policy Overview

- Pre-Approval: All business travel must be pre-approved by the relevant department head. Travel plans should be submitted for approval at least two weeks prior to the travel date.
- Budget Compliance: Employees are expected to make travel arrangements that are economical while ensuring safety and necessity.

4. Allowable Expenses

- Transportation: Includes airfare (economy class), train tickets, car rentals, and necessary local transportation costs (e.g., taxis, buses).
- Accommodation: Hotel stays must be in a standard room category unless otherwise justified and approved.
- Meals: Reasonable meal expenses will be reimbursed up to a per diem rate specified by the finance department.
- Miscellaneous: Expenses for communication, such as internet charges, and other minor travel-related expenses are reimbursable.

5. Non-Allowable Expenses

- Personal Expenses: Expenses that are not directly related to business travel, including but not limited to personal entertainment, bar tabs, spa services, and fines incurred during travel.
- Luxury Services: Use of luxury transport or accommodation options without prior approval.

6. Expense Reporting and Reimbursement

- Documentation: All expenses must be supported by receipts and a completed expense report submitted within two weeks of returning from travel.

- Reimbursement Process: Once approved, reimbursements will be made through the next payroll cycle.

7. Use of Corporate Credit Cards

- Corporate Cards: Employees may be issued a corporate credit card for travel expenses. These cards should be used in accordance with the credit card policy.
- Card Misuse: Misuse of corporate credit cards can result in revocation of the card and disciplinary action.

8. Compliance and Monitoring

- Audits: Travel expenses are subject to audit by the finance department. Noncompliance with the policy may result in disciplinary action, including denial of future travel privileges and recovery of unauthorized expenses.
- Policy Updates: This policy will be reviewed annually to ensure effectiveness and compliance with regulatory changes.

Acknowledgment

Employees are required to sign an acknowledgment form indicating that they have read, understood, and agreed to comply with the Travel Expense Policy.

This policy is designed to ensure that all travel expenses at Acenra AI are transparent, justified, and aligned with the company's objectives, thereby promoting efficient and responsible spending.
